PREFACE.

At the Annual Meeting of the citizens of the Town of Concord, held March 30, 1891, it was voted, "that a committee of five persons be appointed by the moderator, who should procure the printing of the town's ancient registers of births, marriages, and deaths." "The moderator appointed Grindall Reynolds, John S. Keyes, Chas. H. Walcott, Samuel Hoar, and George Tolman."

The book which this committee now offers to their fellow citizens for their approval is the result of the labors given under this vote.

Concord is one of the oldest of our New England towns, having been settled in 1635. It has been termed with truth one of the "seed towns." The descendants of the original settlers are scattered far and wide over the whole country. It is probable that the number of such descendants living outside of the town far exceeds the number of those living in it at the present time. Naturally enough, there has been a great and growing desire on the part of many of these to obtain trustworthy information in respect to those from whom they are descended, or to whom they are related by ties of blood. There has been perhaps a still greater desire on the part of those who still live in the town to have the means of information which really exist put into an available and convenient form. For these reasons and others, which will occur to those who are interested in genealogical matters, the town took the action of which this work is the fruit.

The committee wish to say a few words about the character and formation of the book. The lists as printed are intended to be an actual transcript of the original records. To those records in every case we have gone back and have never relied on any copy, even when it has been officially certified to be correct. These original records have been followed, too, in every particular — in spelling, in abbreviations, in punctuation, in use of capitals, and the like — that is, as nearly as modern print can be made to follow ancient and sometimes almost illegible manuscript. A fact may be stated, probably not generally known, that for some years the records of births, marriages, and deaths were kept only in the town; in other years, only in the county books; and in still other years, both in the town and county records. Where such duplicate records exist we have followed the Town Record Book, at the same time comparing it carefully with the County Book, and stating in footnotes any discrepancies that may have appeared. The official record of deaths has also been compared with the records of the First Church and with the old gravestones, and the differences similarly noted. Wherever in the Town Record of deaths the age of the person dying is not stated, it has been supplied in brackets, wherever possible, from the church records, the gravestones, or the death notices in the local newspapers. To the record of the deaths in the town books we have added such others as do not appear in those books, but are found in the church records or on the gravestones. Nothing which appears in brackets or footnotes is to be taken as a part of the record. Such additions, where no authority is quoted, rest upon the general knowledge of the compilers. Particular attention is called to the index. Some features have been introduced into this index which certainly are not common in indexes of this kind, perhaps altogether unknown in them. Not only is attention called to the pages on which the names of persons appear, but it is stated whether on that particular page is found the record of a birth, a marriage, or a death. This enables the seeker to avoid much unnecessary examination of pages which do not record the kind of facts for which he is looking.

All the members of the committee appointed by the town have given much interest and a good deal of general supervision to the work; but it is simple justice to say that the great burden of investigation and labor has fallen upon Mr. George Tolman, one of the committee. He has given unremitting care and a very large portion of his time to the preparation of the book. He has sought in every direction for information which might cast side light upon the Town Records themselves. If the book shall prove to have the merits that such a book ought to have, a full measure of credit should be given to Mr. Tolman. It is the hope of the committee that this book will be found to be as correct in its statements as it is possible for human care to make it, and that the prolonged inquiries which have been made have given it as much of the quality of thoroughness and completeness as the existing sources of knowledge will permit, and that it will furnish trustworthy information in respect to the men and women who have lived and played their part in one ancient and honorable New England town.

THE EARLIEST RECORD.

If any record of Births, Marriages, and Deaths in Concord was kept previously to the year 1640, such record has not been preserved. It is very probable that the early colonists took no pains to make public registration of such matters.

In September, 1639, the General Court ordered that "records be kept of the days of every marriage, birth, and death of every person within this jurisdiction." No particular officer was charged with this duty in the several towns, but "Mr. Stephen Winthrop was chosen to record things at Boston."

In June, 1642, the General Court ordered that the "Clerks of the Writs" in the several towns should record all births and deaths, and deliver a return of the same yearly to the Recorder of the court belonging to the jurisdiction in which they live. Persons authorized to marry were to return the names of persons married by them, and the date of the marriages, to the Recorder of the court.

In compliance with these requirements of law, two returns of births and deaths, one in 1644 and one in 1645, were made by Simon Willard to the Recorder at Boston. The original volume is now in the office of the City Registrar at Boston, together with a copy made in the year 1856. In 1851 a copy of that portion of the record relating to towns in Middlesex County was made under the direction of the County Commissioners, and now forms a part of the first volume of the Records of Births, Marriages, and Deaths in Middlesex County, in the office of the Clerk of the Courts at Cambridge. This copy contains some errors, which are here corrected in foot-notes. These returns have been printed in the N. E. Historical and Genealogical Register, Vol. IV, p. 271, and Vol. VIII, p. 347.

[1] The County record says 1641. 1640 is the original record.

[2] Duplicate entries of course; probably first made from memory, and the discrepancy of seven days to be accounted for by the fact that the day of the week, rather than the date, was remembered when the second record was made.

[3] This is according to the original record at Boston. The copied County record says 1643. Dr. Savage (Gen. Dict., Vol. IV, p. 498), following the latter, expresses himself as puzzled by the birth of a daughter, Mary, 20, 7, 1643, two months after the death of the mother. In fact, however, as the record shows, Joseph Wheeler's wife, Elizabeth, and her sons, Ephraim and Joseph, died almost at the same time, probably from some malignant disorder, and they were buried, one on the 18th, the other two on the 19th of July, 1642. The daughter, Mary, born fourteen months later, was by Joseph Wheeler's second wife, Sarah.

[4] So recorded.

mary the daught^r of Georg & mary ffowle borne 9 (12) 1644.

THE COUNTY RECORDS.

THE next instalment of Concord births, etc., with similar records from other towns in Middlesex County, is found in the first volume of Middlesex Deeds. These records were also copied in 1851, under the direction of the County Commissioners, and are included in the first volume of Middlesex County Registers of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, in the office of the Clerk of the Courts, at East Cambridge. No contemporary copy of the original exists at Concord. The record at Cambridge is mutilated in a few places by the breaking of the edges of the leaves, so that several dates are now lost.

Deliuered into Court, the 17th (7) 1650 :

By Simon Willard.

THE CONCORD REGISTERS. Book I.

From the date (September 17, 1650) when Simon Willard made the foregoing return, until February, 1654, no record of Births, Marriages, and Deaths in Concord is to be found either in the books of the Town or in those of the County. It is probable, however, that such a record was made here, and duly transmitted to the County Recorder, as required by law, no copy of the record being retained at home. This had evidently been the custom up to that time, and Simon Willard, who had "delivered into court" all the foregoing records, continued in the office of Town Clerk during this period, and would hardly have been likely to neglect this duty.

The First Book of the Town Registers was begun by Robert Meriam, Town Clerk from 1654 to 1668, and continued by John Scotchford, his successor in that office from 1668 to 1680. Each of these Clerks made due returns to the County Recorder. Down to and including the second entry on page 7 of the Concord original, these returns were copied into the first volume of the Probate Registry; from and after that they were copied into books kept for this special purpose, and now in the office of the Clerk of the Courts. A great many errors occur in these copies, due partly to carelessness of the official Recorder; partly to his lack of familiarity with Concord family names, and partly to the crabbed handwriting of our earlier Town Clerks and their arbitrary and varying notions of orthography. When the County Registers were recopied in 1851, into the volumes now in use, these errors were perpetuated, and a few new ones added. Where these errors are of importance, we have noticed them in foot-notes.

In the following pages, the marginal figures in brackets denote the pages of the original volume.

[1] Not on County record.

[2] The County record and the copied Concord record of 1849 call him Joshua. He was, however, that Josiah Blood who married Mary Barrett in 1687, and Mary Torrey in 1691, and who died in 1731, "in the 68th year of his age."

[3] Winship on County record.

[4] She has been called Alice on the record heretofore. Possibly the name was returned to Town Clerk Merriam as Ellice, and carelessly transformed by him into its present shape.

[5] The County record transforms this entry thus: Timothy son of Joseph Wheeler & Mary his wife borne 28 March 1664,—and the copied Town record of 1849, which was obviously made up from the County copy rather than from the local original, repeats the blunder. But there was no Joseph Wheeler with wife Mary here in 1664. Moreover, the death of Timothy son of Joshua & Elizabeth Wheeler is matter of record. (See p. 12.)

[1] County record says 68–69.

[2] County record says 68–69.

[3] County record says 68–69.

[4] The County record has it "Hannah daughter of William Wheeler and Hannah his wife born April 15, 1669," and omits the Frisell entry altogether. The date was plainly borrowed from the next following entry. William and Hannah Wheeler already had a daughter, Hannah (born in 1660). The Concord copied record of 1849 follows the County record and perpetuates the blunder, although the original Concord record is plainly as here given.

THE COUNTY RECORDS AGAIN.

From 1678 to 1685 no record appears to have been preserved at Concord. John Flint, who succeeded to the office of Town Clerk in 1680, made a return to the County Recorder at that time of the record which had been made by his predecessor, and which had not been previously returned, but did not think it necessary to preserve the original. From 1680 to 1685, also, he sent his returns regularly to the County Recorder, but kept no copy at home. The entries which here follow are taken from the County Books. It is to be borne in mind that in "figure-dating," as here employed, the year was held to begin in March.

THE TOWN RECORD.

In 1685 the old book which had been kept by Robert Meriam and John Scotchford was reopened, and the following entries made therein, which were also sent to the County Recorder, with the exception of the last two entries, which were apparently added to the record at a much later period.

After the close of this book no records of births or deaths were returned to the County Recorder, and it is evident that a great many such records for the years 1686, 1687, and 1688, are now lost. Such records of marriages during those years as were returned by the ministers who performed the same, have already been copied from the County record in the preceding pages.

[1] County record says John, which is probably correct.

The following entry was made at the end of this first book, and although it is rather a private memorandum than an official record, we have thought best to include it here. The words in brackets are torn out from the original page, and are here restored by the present editor.

THE CONCORD REGISTERS. Book II.

Thomas Brown was chosen Town Clerk in 1689, and served until 1701, when Abraham Wood succeeded him, and held the office for three years. From 1704 to 1710 Thomas Brown again held the office, and was followed by William Wilson, who served until 1719. During all this time no records of Births, Marriages, or Deaths, were returned from Concord to the County recording officer, though the record at home was kept with a great deal of care, and unusual thoroughness, in the same book that was used for the recording of other town matters. It is still in a good state of preservation and quite legible, except that in a few places the edges of the leaves have become broken, so that occasionally the last figure or figures of a date are missing. In 1719 John Flint became Town Clerk, and resumed the practice of sending in the records of Marriages to be recorded in the County registry. This practice was followed by successive Town Clerks until 1796, when it was dropped altogether. The Marriages so recorded are, however, but a small part of those recorded at home, and nothing appears on the County record that is not also on our own registers.

THE CONCORD REGISTERS. Book III.

The third volume of the Concord Registers is arranged in a more orderly manner than the two preceding volumes, being divided into four sections, for Births, Deaths, Marriages, and Intentions of Marriage, respectively, and each section being separately and independently paged. This volume contains all of such records from this period down to the passage of the new statute concerning their registration, in 1844.

A Book of the records of the births, deaths and marriages, in the town of Concord &c.

Marriage Intentions.

No record of Intentions of Marriage appears to have been preserved prior to the year 1780. Since that time they have been regularly kept, and the record forms one of the divisions of this third book of the Town's Registers. It would seem to be of little use to print both the record of Intention and the record of Marriage, and we therefore include here only such Intentions as have no corresponding Marriage recorded. In most of these cases, the parties were probably married in some other town; perhaps in some instances they were never married at all. There are a few instances where the record of marriage does not agree with the record of intention, and in those instances we have thought best to print both records.

The following is an entery of the intentions of Marriages of Persons hereafter named, from and after Jan: 1780 and which was Made Publick in the Town of Concord as the Law directs viz:—

THE CONCORD REGISTERS. Book IV.

By an Act of the General Court, approved March 16, 1844, several important changes were made in the laws relating to the Registration and Returns of Births, Marriages, and Deaths, and blank forms for such registration, uniformly printed, were furnished to all Town Clerks in the Commonwealth. The Town Clerk of Concord (Mr. Cyrus Stow) transcribed into the new book such entries as he had made since the close of Book III, and he appears also to have made some effort to obtain returns of such births, marriages, and deaths as had previously escaped registration. His successor in office (Mr. Francis R. Gourgas) made some further effort in the same direction, Some such matters will therefore appear here recorded several years out of their proper chronological order. The record contains also many duplicates of previous entries; these we have thought best to omit here, as they add nothing to the value or correctness of this transcript, but tend rather to confusion. From this point also we present only the essential particulars of the record, omitting the details required by the statute, but unimportant here, such as the numbering of each entry, the date of its registration, the name of the informant, and the like. We retain, however, the spelling, in many cases original and erratic, of the names of persons and places, just as it stands in the record.

By the statute of 1844 it was made the duty of the School Committee, "annually in the month of May, to ascertain from actual inquiry or otherwise, all the births which have happened in the town during the year next preceding the first day of said May, together with the facts concerning births required by the first section of this act," and to make return thereof to the Town Clerk. This duty seems to have been very carelessly done, for during the first three years of the operation of this act, the Christian names of a large proportion of the children born were not recorded. Where it has been possible to supply the omission from other sources of information, we print the names in brackets.

Births.

THE OLD CARLISLE REGISTER.

On the 19th of April, 1754, the northerly part of the town of Concord was incorporated as a District, and known as the District of Carlisle. The territory so set off from Concord was, however, restored by act of the General Court, in January, 1757, and the District of Carlisle ceased to exist. During its brief municipal existence, the records of Births and Deaths were carefully and precisely kept, and the volume containing such records was preserved until 1780, when the District was permanently set off from Concord, and the old book was again brought into use. Such births and deaths as were recorded therein while the District was a part of Concord are here added, omitting those which were recorded in the Concord Registers as well as in that of the District, and which have already been printed in the preceding pages of this book.

THE BOOK OF RECORDS OF THE DISTRICT OF CARLISLE of The Death and Beath Ever Sence we Have Been Sete of as a District and by Name of Carlisle April 19th 1754.

THE BURYING GROUNDS.

In view of the imperfectness of the official Town and Church Records of Deaths, it has been thought advisable to include in this volume such facts as can be gathered from the gravestones. The names, ages, and dates that follow are copied from gravestones, now, or recently standing, and the list is intended to include the names of those persons only whose deaths are not recorded in the foregoing pages.

NAMES OF PERSONS.

The spelling of family names in the older records is extremely irregular and unsettled, the same name sometimes appearing in three or four different forms on one and the same page. Although these irregularities of orthography have been carefully preserved in the foregoing pages, it has appeared unadvisable to follow them in the index, and such names are, therefore, here indexed under the spelling now commonly adopted. Mere orthographical eccentricities in first names are also disregarded, excepting in the case of such varied forms of a single name as have now come to be looked upon as separate and distinct names. For instance, Hepzibah, Hephzibah, Hepsibeth, etc., are considered merely as different ways of spelling, and are, therefore, treated as one name; while Ann, Anna, Anne, Annie, Hannah, and Nancy are considered and indexed as distinct names, although the same individual may appear, in different pages of the record, under two, or three, or perhaps more of these names. Diminutive forms and pet names are indexed as they stand upon the record, although in very many cases the same person may be recorded on one page and in one connection under the proper and usual form of the name, and on another page and in another connection under the diminutive form. Mary becomes Molly and Polly, Mehitabel turns into Mitty or Hitty Martha changes to Patty, Dorothy to Dolly, Sarah to Sally, Abigail to Nabby, Elizabeth to Betsey, etc., and it is well to bear these and similar variations in mind when using the index.
